

Adjective Formation

Use and Form – Negative prefixes

Remember: ☺ We use the negative prefixes un- / in- / im- / il- / ir- / dis- to give the adjective the opposite meaning:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| grateful – un grateful | conclusive – in conclusive |
| personal – im personal | liberal – il liberal |
| retrievable – ir retrievable | contented – dis contented |

A. Match the adjectives with the right prefix to form opposites.

- | | | | | |
|--------------|--------------------------|-----------------|--------------------------|---------|
| 1. legal | <input type="checkbox"/> | 11. countable | <input type="checkbox"/> | a) im- |
| 2. pleased | <input type="checkbox"/> | 12. responsible | <input type="checkbox"/> | b) in- |
| 3. moral | <input type="checkbox"/> | 13. graced | <input type="checkbox"/> | c) il- |
| 4. jointed | <input type="checkbox"/> | 14. fair | <input type="checkbox"/> | d) ir- |
| 5. correct | <input type="checkbox"/> | 15. polite | <input type="checkbox"/> | e) un- |
| 6. happy | <input type="checkbox"/> | 16. logical | <input type="checkbox"/> | f) dis- |
| 7. legible | <input type="checkbox"/> | 17. mature | <input type="checkbox"/> | |
| 8. regular | <input type="checkbox"/> | 18. continued | <input type="checkbox"/> | |
| 9. connected | <input type="checkbox"/> | 19. tolerant | <input type="checkbox"/> | |
| 10. literate | <input type="checkbox"/> | 20. proper | <input type="checkbox"/> | |

I had never seen such an irresponsible player before! And he's so dishonest!

C. Now choose a noun and add a prefix to it to complete the sentences:

- relevant stable
legitimate practical offensive
logical precise reversible

B. Fill in the gaps with the right prefix.

- The rumours about their reconciliation were completely ____founded.
- He didn't like Lisa's boyfriend. It would be ____honest of him to pretend otherwise.
- It was ____possible for her to arrive on time to the meeting.
- The tickets are ____valid. You haven't stamped them.
- Many ____legal immigrants were arrested last night.
- I am convinced now. His arguments were ____resistible.
- I hate to wait in queues. I'm too ____patient.
- Look at her shoes. They're so ____usual.
- It was such a ____couraging experience.
- An ____known visitor has left a package in the room.

- I don't believe you! She's such a shy, _____ woman. She couldn't possibly have done it!
- It would be _____ to call her every time the baby doesn't want to eat.
- Her arguments don't make sense. They're completely _____.
- John spent the whole class making _____ remarks. I wish the teacher would have shut him up.
- He was very _____. He could have had a better grade if he had been more accurate.
- They are always calling him names. They say he's an _____ son. His parents are married to someone else.
- The accident caused him _____ brain damage, I'm afraid.
- I'm sorry. His medical condition is highly _____.

Adjective Formation

Use and Form – Negative prefixes

Remember: ☺ We use the negative prefixes un- / in- / im- / il- / ir- / dis- to give the adjective the opposite meaning:

grateful – ungrateful conclusive – inconclusive
 personal – impersonal liberal – illiberal
 retrievable – irretrievable contented – discontented

A. Match the adjectives with the right prefix to form opposites.

- | | | |
|------------------------|---------------------------|---------|
| 1. legal c) | 11. countable e) | a) im- |
| 2. pleased f) | 12. responsible d) | b) in- |
| 3. moral a) | 13. graced f) | c) il- |
| 4. jointed f) | 14. fair e) | d) ir- |
| 5. correct b) | 15. polite a) | e) un- |
| 6. happy e) | 16. logical c) | f) dis- |
| 7. legible c) | 17. mature a) | |
| 8. regular d) | 18. continued f) | |
| 9. connected f) | 19. tolerant b) | |
| 10. literate c) | 20. proper a) | |

I had never seen such an irresponsible player before! And he's so dishonest!!!

C. Now choose a noun and add a prefix to it to complete the sentences:

relevant stable
 legitimate practical offensive
 logical precise reversible

B. Fill in the gaps with the right prefix.

- The rumours about their reconciliation were completely unfounded.
- He didn't like Lisa's boyfriend. It would be dishonest of him to pretend otherwise.
- It was impossible for her to arrive on time to the meeting.
- The tickets are invalid. You haven't stamped them.
- Many illegal immigrants were arrested last night.
- I am convinced now. His arguments were irresistible.
- I hate to wait in queues. I'm too impatient.
- Look at her shoes. They're so unusual.
- It was such a discouraging experience.
- An unknown visitor has left a package in the room.

- I don't believe you! She's such a shy, inoffensive woman. She couldn't possibly have done it!
- It would be impractical to call her every time the baby doesn't want to eat.
- Her arguments don't make sense. They're completely illogical.
- John spent the whole class making irrelevant remarks. I wish the teacher would have shut him up.
- He was very imprecise. He could have had a better grade if he had been more accurate.
- They are always calling him names. They say he's an illegitimate son. His parents are married to someone else.
- The accident caused him irreversible brain damage, I'm afraid.
- I'm sorry. His medical condition is highly unstable.

